

READING IS THINKING

comprehend, you must think about what being read. Consider the following reading strategies and sentence starters:

CONNECTING

I remembered that earlier in the book...
This part reminded me of...
This makes me think of...

QUESTIONING

One question I have is...
Something I am wondering is...
I would ask... why (he/she) ...

INFERRING

I figured out that...
I concluded that...
I predict that...

EVALUATING

I disagree with...
I do not like how...
Something that I would explain more is...

REPAIRING

I felt confused when...
One word that I will look up is...
I got stuck when...
I do not understand why...
I first thought..., but then I realized that...

VISUALIZING

I could picture...
The image I see is...

SYNTHESIZING

I finally understood...
The real message is...

SUMMARIZING

Something important is...
This part is mainly about...
The main point is...
Something important that happened is...

Name: _____

Independent Reading Log

Directions: Complete your reading log using at least 2 different reading strategy sentence starters.

Date:	Title:	Lexile:	Page Started:	Page Ended:
Response

Score
0 1 2

Date:	Title:	Lexile:	Page Started:	Page Ended: Response

Score
0 1 2

Scale
2-I read the whole time and wrote 2 thoughtful responses.
1-I read part of the time and/or completed part of my log.
0-I did not read or complete my log.